

Fellow Citizens,

LORD JOHN TOWNSHEND'S Friends have falsely asserted, that LORD HOOD was a Friend to the SHOP TAX.—Will you support the Men who endeavour to impose upon your Understandings by a deliberate Falshood?

LORD HOOD has always opposed and spoken against the SHOP-TAX in the House of Commons, and has pledged himself to use his utmost Exertions to effect a Repeal whenever that Measure shall be again agitated in Parliament.

July 22^d 1788.
